

Possible Pedophile in our area

A special meeting of concerned parents & Neighbourhood Watch members was held on Monday evening September 24th at the Rexton Elementary School to discuss recent events surrounding a older man in a blue van approaching younger children in the area.

Two members from the RCMP Cpl. Jamie Melanson and Const. Connie Brown brought everyone up to date on the situation. The members explained what reports they had received and what has been done so far. Many questions were asked by the parents and most were clarified by the members.

These major points were brought out at the meeting.

1. So far no crime has been committed.

2. The RCMP are looking for an older man driving a blue van as a person of interest.

3. All RCMP members in the area have been alerted & patrols have been stepped up.

4. If you see an older man in a blue van approaching younger children get as much information as possible ie. license plate #(whole or partial), make of van, driver description (glasses, tattoo, scar, color of hair , etc.).

5. Report you finding immediately to the RCMP and try and be a specific as possible.

6. Be sure to remind your children of what to do if a stranger tries to pick them up.

7. If you have any new information make sure you pass it on to your NW block Captain.

8. Keep our eyes open and be sure to report any suspicious behaviour.

An email list of concerned parents was made up after the meeting and if there are other concerned parents who were not able to attend the meeting and want to add their names to the list, contact B. Landry at landry_bj@hotmail.com .

The were approximately 100 concerned parents at the meeting from all around the area and they were thanked for coming out on such short notice by Cpl. Melanson.
